

Meet Debbie Hogan
Medical Technician
Carroll Occupational Health

Debbie Hogan joined Corporate Occupational Health Solutions in 1998. Debbie is currently certified in audio and spirometry and serves as a mentor to Carroll Occupational Health's growing staff. She has 23 years of experience in Occupational Medicine.

Debbie is responsible for many day-to-day tasks at Carroll Occupational Health in addition to her medical technician duties. As the most senior member of the staff at COH, Debbie serves in many roles including referral appointment scheduling, medical records and FAA clerical duties.

Debbie resides in Hanover, Pennsylvania with her husband and their 3 daughters. In addition, she is pursuing her undergraduate degree at Harrisburg Area Community College.

Carroll Occupational Health is pleased to have Debbie as part of our staff and is looking forward to growing our business with Debbie's commitment and assistance.
